HON. ANDY KIM

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 26, 2019

Mr. KIM. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Jaron Brown of Mount Laurel New Jersey, who was named as the Rutgers University—Camden male Student Veteran of the Year.

Jaron served in the U.S. Air Force from 2005 to 2017, attaining the rank of Staff Sergeant. During his service, Jaron deployed five times with his unit to Qatar, Kuwait, Turkey and Kyrgyzstan in support of Operations Enduring Freedom, Iraqi Freedom, and Operation New Dawn. After his overseas deployment, he transferred to Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst in New Jersey, where he spent three years as a contingency response team chief, and from which he deployed to Iraq in support of Operation Inherent Resolve.

After ending his active duty service in 2017, Jaron chose to pursue his bachelor's degree at Rutgers University—Camden, enrolling in the fall of 2018. Upon his arrival to campus, he began to work in the Office of Military and Veterans Affairs at the University, and became active in the student veterans' group on campus, where he now serves as president. Jaron remains a leader supporting the military and veteran community on campus, assisting other veterans in their transition from military life to college life.

Jaron Brown serves as an example of tremendous sacrifice, determination and dedication to his fellow servicemembers. I commend him for his desire to not only pursue his degree, but also to engage with the campus community and assist other veterans in their transition.

I'd like to thank Jaron for his service to our country, and for continuing to engage the student veteran community in South Jersey.

HONORING THE LIFE OF DONALD NATHAN CARR

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 26, 2019

Mr. CONNOLLY. Madam Speaker, I rise to celebrate and honor the life of Donald (Don) Nathan Carr. Sadly, Don passed away unexpectedly on Monday, November 18, 2019.

Don was born in Texas on June 27, 1951. Upon graduation from high school in 1969, Don joined the U.S. Army and served in the Vietnam Conflict. He became an Army Public Affairs officer, serving in Thailand, Germany, Texas, Alaska, and for five years at the Pentagon. He retired as a Master Sergeant in 1990 following 21 years of honorable service to our nation.

After his retirement from active duty, he began his civil service career at Fort Belvoir, located in Fairfax County, Virginia. His first position at Fort Belvoir was Editor of the Belvoir Eagle and he quickly advanced to Command Information Chief and finally to the position of Director of Public Affairs. Don believed that it was crucial for Fort Belvoir to fully engage the non-military community in order to create a true partnership in the sweeping changes that faced the region and the Garrison.

Of course, one of the most significant challenges during Don's tenure was Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) which greatly expanded the mission and footprint of Fort Belvoir and transferred countless DoD agencies and departments, as well as tens of thousands of employees and soldiers to Fort Belvoir.

As then-Chairman of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, I worked with Fort Belvoir to ensure this process would be as smooth as possible. A major concern of the community was the impact on the region's already congested roads. Upon my election to Congress in 2008, these concerns and others persisted, largely because the BRAC plan provided no funding for transportation. Finally, through a genuine collaboration between DoD, local and state partners, and federal funding of $61 million through the Recovery Act, the Fairfax County Parkway was completed. The communication and transparency of Fort Belvoir leadership, including Don, were instrumental in achieving this goal.

Don was also of great assistance to my office with resolving any issues brought to my attention from those stationed or working at Fort Belvoir. He would consistently take prompt action to resolve any problems that arose. He retired from civil service in 2012, having served our nation—in uniform and out—for a combined total of 43 years. Even after his retirement, he was always available to discuss issues and provide guidance to my office.

Madam Speaker, Don was a kind and generous man and will be greatly missed. I ask my colleagues to join me in expressing our deepest condolences to Don's wife, Noy, his children and his grandchildren. He was devoted to his family and I know how much joy they gave him. I hope that the outpouring of sympathy and support from Don's colleagues, friends, and our community will be a source of strength and comfort to his family during this time.
